QUESTION 1: LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Your company has had problems with regard to customer service. Some employees have been rude and unhelpful to customers on a number of occasions, thus inconveniencing the clients. One of the clients decided to send a seriously damaging story about the matter to the local newspaper.

Write a letter to the editor, explaining the situation from your employer's point of view. Use a suitable pseudonym for publication to protect your company against possible antagonism from employees.

QUESTION 6: QUESTIONNAIRE

Mr Rosouw requests you to compile a questionnaire that customers will be required to complete. The purpose of this questionnaire is to determine the needs of customers in order for the management to be responsive to these needs in trying to improve customer service.

You wish to determine the following:

- Whether the service offered to them is up to their expectation and to the value of their money
- If No, what do they suggest the company to improve on?
- Staff friendliness and efficiency
- In case of a complaint, which communication channel do they prefer to use to remain anonymous?

Kindly request customers to mention any member of staff who they consider to have provided excellent service. Customers should also be given the opportunity to make suggestions on how the company can improve its customer service.

Design a suitable letterhead and include a paragraph explaining the need for the questionnaire, as well as how it should be completed. Instructions and questions should be clear and unambiguous so that the questionnaire will be quick and easy to answer.

Compile this questionnaire that ALL customers would be requested to complete. Make use of at least TWO types of questions.
