Telephone number: 018 384 2348

Fax: 0864333669

SECTION A: REPORT WRITING

Answer all the questions in this section.

QUESTION 1: INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

You are the principal of Ferguson College, Mr Boemo Moseki. Recently the CEO has been receiving reports about students dropping out of the college at an alarming rate. The CEO has asked you to establish the reasons for the increasing dropout rates.

On Monday, 18 November 2019, she asked you to write a formal investigative report. You decided to call a meeting with the remaining students, as well as speak telephonically to 20 of the students who had left.

Write an investigative report of 150 to 250 words using the following core notes, as well as incorporating your own ideas:

The following reasons for the dropout were provided by the students who were interviewed:

- High tuition fees
- College not easy to reach with public transport
- Lecturers harassing students
- Lecture halls not conducive to learning
- Lecturers not teaching effectively

Use the following information to draft your report on a letterhead:

- Provide a heading for your report. (1 mark)
- Terms of reference: State who instructed you to write the report. What is the instruction? (2 marks)
- Procedure: List two methods used to obtain the information. (2 marks)
- Findings: Provide at least five findings. (5 marks)
- Conclusion: Make a summary based on the findings. (2 marks)
- Recommendations: Make a recommendation for each problem. Arrange the recommendations in the same sequence as set out in the findings. (5 marks)
- Provide the full name and position of the compiler at the end of the report. (1 mark)

QUESTION 2: FEEDBACK REPORT

Dr Aaron Motsoaledi called on all private nursing college principals to attend a workshop at the Mmabatho Civic Centre at 09:00 on 13 January 2020. Some of the items on the agenda include how to run a private nursing college, private nursing college curricula and regulated fees of private nursing colleges.

On your arrival at the workshop, you found the venue filled to capacity. You were forced to stand throughout the session. Although your college paid for registration and meals, you were unable to eat because the food was finished before you reached the serving station. Presenters were not audible enough, because of technical issues with the sound system. Furthermore, presenters were not well prepared.

Use the given information to write a feedback report as requested by the CEO Ms Jansen. Use the form in ADDENDUM A (attached) to complete the report. Hand it in with your ANSWER BOOK.

Answer all the questions in this section.

QUESTION 3: NOTICE AND AGENDA OF A SPECIAL MEETING

Mr Moseki, the college principal, is quite concerned about the stern words of Minister Motsoaledi about colleges that do not operate according to the approved policies of the Department of Health.

He therefore requests you to send a notice and agenda of a special meeting. The meeting is going to take place in the boardroom at 09:00 on 20 January 2020. This must be presented in a memorandum format.

Draft the notice and agenda for the meeting for members of staff.

The following points are to be discussed:

- High tuition fees
- Private colleges not adhering to Department of Health policies
- Lecture halls not conducive to learning

QUESTION 5: MEMORANDUM

Answer this question on ADDENDUM C (attached.) Hand it in with your ANSWER BOOK.

You are the college principal, Mr Moseki, who just received a call from Minister Motsoaledi's office. You have been informed that Minister Motsoaledi will be coming to your college on 14 February 2020. The purpose of the visit is to check whether the college is running according to departmental policies. The Minister is also going to talk about bursaries for nursing students. You would like every member of staff to take part in the preparation for the visit. Ask the maintenance supervisor to ensure that the college premises is thoroughly cleaned as the Minister is likely to inspect every corner of the premises. Classes need to continue as usual.

Write an internal memorandum of 80-100 words to all staff members informing them of the Minister's visit and providing them with all the necessary information.

QUESTION 6: FAX

You are the college principal, Mr Moseki. The meeting with the Minister went well and he was impressed by the improvements at the college. He even offered to provide bursaries for the three best-performing first-year students at the college. He asked you to give him the names of those students who excelled in the first quarter. The names must be submitted by 15 March 2020.

On 15 March 2020, you sent a fax to the Minister's office.

Write a fax of 80 to 100 words using the information below:

- The introduction must include the Minister's instruction to you.
- Provide the names of the three students you have chosen. Include their contact details.
- Show appreciation for the fact that the Minister chose students from your college.
- End with a statement of goodwill.

Use ADDENDUM D (attached) to write this fax in 80–100 words. Hand it in with your ANSWER BOOK.
